Dr. Leo J. Baranski

. . . "A college is more than classrooms, students and teacher. It is a learning community where there can be a one-to-one relationship. Dr. Baranski insisted on reserving time for conferences with students. He wanted to know their dreams and aspirations and he spent countless hours helping students achieve their goals. He felt honored and rewarded when students sought his advice and counsel."

(Dr. R. W. Edmund, Vice President for Academic Affairs.)

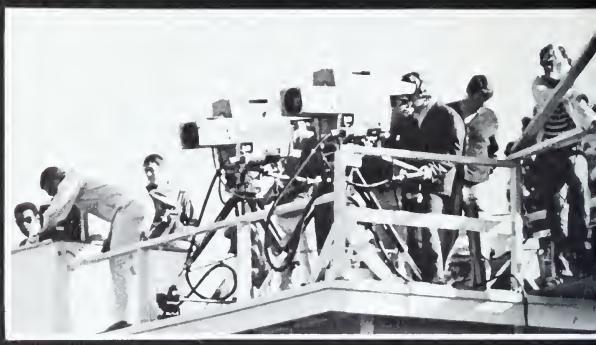
A Championship Year



The old year passes with cheers, smiling faces, proud Kingsmen with hearts ready to burst, coaches, wives and alums with tears in their eyes and a wet, happy coach raising his arm and pointing to heaven.

It's great to be Number 1!

December 4, 1971, was California Lutheran College's finest hour. The hopes and dreams of 10 years were real, national recognition . . . at last.

To completely recap the 2nd year of Champions would be an impossible task. Maybe a brief synopsis will suffice.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 8 ALUMNI 6

A night game at Thousand Oaks High School, a big crowd and a close game marked the opener. Richard Kelley's field goal made the difference as CLC came from behind with an 80 yard drive with minutes to play and won with only seconds left.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 31
AUGUSTANA COLLEGE 31

The Kingsmen went to the heart of America and proved to over 5,000 fans that Cal Lutheran College never quits. Down twice, CLC rallied with no time-outs and 85 yards to go on a big 61 yard pass to Ralph Miller. Six new defensive men learned a lot about football that night.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 31
UNIVERSITY OF REDLANDS 7

Bruce Drake and Ralph Miller teamed up to score and the CLC defense came back to life for an easy home opener.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 20
WHITTIER COLLEGE 7

A first ever home night game in Simi and a -26 rushing effort by the CLC defense proved decisive. Sub Quarterback Kip Downen provided the offensive spark as the Kingsmen kept alive their domination of Whittier.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 6 LAVERNE 6

The Kingsmen hit rock bottom with an inept performance, although La Verne had a lot to do with it. Four field goals were all the scores, but a Cal Lutheran field goal block with 17 seconds left kept a tie from being a loss.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 24
CAL STATE FULLERTON 14

An undefeated and high stepping Titan team was demolished before 4,500 astonished fans at Thousand Oaks High School by underdog CLC. It was a total win by the Kingsmen in all departments. CSF went on to beat PCAA champ, Fresno State.

At this point in the season California Lutheran College's record (3-0-2) began to draw votes in the NAIA rating game. Ahead were 2 state schools and tough Pacific Lutheran University.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 40
SONOMA STATE COLLEGE 6

After an off week CLC flew north for a return encounter with Sonoma State and blasted the Cossacks with a 35 point first half and then eased up. Ahead loomed Cal Lutheran's first major university game.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 22
CAL STATE LOS ANGELES 7

A spirited but mistake prone CLC eleven shocked the haughty Diablos in a wierd twi-night single header that was played Friday at four o'clock at LA's request.

The tension mounted as both Cal Western and Claremont lost and CLC moved into the top six nationally and eligible for a play-off spot. The team voted to give up the Las Vegas game and risk all on one roll of the dice vs. league champion Pacific Lutheran University.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 27
PACIFIC LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY 6

CLC . . + . . Homecoming . . + . . Big game = Victory. The Kingsmen fought tough PLU all the way and used familiar weapons, the pass interception and fumble recovery to win the "must" game.

The NAIA invitation came on Sunday afternoon. The community of Thousand Oaks outbid Butte, Montana and California Lutheran College became the host to Montana Tech.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 34
MONTANA TECH 6

As usual Cal Lutheran was underdog in the four team play-off. Tech had the best running attack and highest scorer in the U.S.

When it was over the CLC defense and Sam Cvijanovich and Gary McGinnis reigned supreme and the oft maligned Kingsmen offense rolled up the 500 yards plus. NBC showed CLC to the world, Jim Murray wrote about it and suddenly Cal Lutheran was everybody's hero—except in Pennsylvania.

CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN COLLEGE 34
WESTMINSTER 14

The Titans are/were a legend in their own time in the East. The tough kids from the coal mines and the steel mills playing for a 120 year old school with a bona fide giant for a coach. Defending champs, rated number one all year, undefeated in 24 games, Westminster seemed like a sure winner.

A funny thing happened to the Titans on their way to the championship. They lost.

The Kingsmen wore the crown and it was no fluke. In the end the star Titan runner was on the bench, the cocky quarterback was throwing ducks and the vaunted Westminster team was learning a lot about being behind with time running out. A lesson Cal Lutheran learned early in September.

The headlines Sunday read "CLC No. 1" in type last used on V-J Day. The country read it on the wire services, heard it on four radio broadcasts and saw it in color on NBC. The surfer kids from Southern California playing for a tradition-less church school on government loans and $400 "scholarships" were national champions. Stories like that wouldn't make a good pilot show on ABC-TV . . . too unbelievable.
